Just found this game by pure accident, and I am glad that I did!

These developers are way underselling this super fun little indie gem for just 99 cents when I feel it offers plenty of value and replay value to warrant a $10 price tag!

Watch my "First Play Impressions Video" right HERE:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B4A2ABr6LxA&feature=youtu.be>

While this game has a couple of minor little bugs, it still scored an impressive 95% score using my unique scoring system which grades indie games more on value and fun that it does graphics. Because of the high score and my recent discovery of this amazing little game, I started a whole new series on my YT channel called " Discovered Hidden Gem!" just for games like this one here!

\* Procedural dungeon generation helps deliver a high replay value.

\* This game offers fantastic keyboard and mouse controls with very good response

\* Tons of different enemies and enemy tactics keep the adventure to find your sister interesting and fresh

\* An awesome item shop that allows you to constantly progress your game towards newer and more powerful gear

\* Music is catchy and fits the mood perfectly

\* Game sounds are also high quality as are explosion and screen shake effects

\* Has a super addictive quality that will have you playing again and again

[An absolute STEAL at just 99 cents! - HIGHLY RECOMMENDED!. Awesome game for the price! You can checkout my review on it before ya play it \[?\]](#)

Great game, had a 90% coupon from leveling up. really worth playing! fun but kinda short.. Fun and Fast Indie game to past time or when you have no wifi. Nice Enter the Gungeon and Nuclear Throne bootleg.. This game doesn't really do anything wrong, but it doesn't do a lot very right either imo. It's serviceable, doesn't look or play too bad, but personally I found it pretty boring and I found the battles to be a bit awkward.

Still at that price if you're looking for dungeon crawling with guns... why not?. not my type of game. gameplay is funny, story very good .. (y) horror funny :). Very weird problems with controls. No setting for stick-deadzone, so my sensitive controller can't be used as the character will move on his own even if I don't touch the stick.

Switching to keyboard causes the keyholds register as presses, making the character move in a very choppy way. It also disables any ability to run. Only game in which I have seen this happen.

It's very cheap and seemed like a fun game but can not recommend.
